

The Rocky Horror Picture Show

Movie Script

General Information (or "How to read The Script") :

Audience instructions are in braces. Text in quotes is to be shouted. The instruction 'echo' means that the following line is to be shouted in unison with the film.
Instructions for "screen person" (i.e. someone who is near the screen and can do those things - not all the audience) appear in braces as well.
The word 'or' means alternative lines.
The "/" character means alternative text within the same line.
The "<...>" characters mean that it should be replaced by what's written in them.
(since in this one script there are lines from many sources.
There are times when more than one line could be used.
In these cases, they all appear).
Call-backs to call-backs appear directly after each other, up to long dialogues, and sometimes even alternative dialogues (with 'or' between them).
I know this is confusing, but "It's something you'll get used to"...

Whenever Brad appears, or introduced in some way, the line "Asshole!" is appropriate.
Whenever Janet appears, use the line "Slut!".
The longer line "Slut! Bitch! Whore!", or say "Rice" and pelt the virgins with rice.
Whenever Rocky appears, shout "Beefcake! BEEFCAKE!".
Whenever the Narrator (Charles Gray) appears, have "chin sex" (go up to the screen and jump up under it with a hand up)
You can shout "Boring", and throw paper balls, or say "Charles Gray, he's OK!", or "He's got no fucking neck!".
Dr. Scott may be booed, but it's also appropriate to yell "Kiss Ass!", "Suck my cock!", or "Dr. Scott should be shot".

Notes to the reader:

If you see any lines, or props, that are missing, or just anything, that you would like added, or typos, spellings, ideas of any kind...
Then just send email to me (katzir@pobox.com) and they will be added to the next version of the script. If you post comments on alt.cult-movies.rocky-horror, then they might find their way into this script.
I don't mark the versions, particularly because I modify it very often. I'll make a habit though to post it on a monthly basis on the alt.cult-movies.rocky-horror newsgroup, and upload it to some FTP sites.

I'll keep the date updated though...
The date also means that it's updated with all the posting in 'our'
newsgroup to that date.

Editor's notes:

It was a late November evening in 1993.
I was looking for an Audience-Participation script.
The best I've found was George Burgyan's (gburgyan@nforce.com)
I added to it from ALL the other scripts I've got.
Plus what we have at my theater, what people mailed me,
And everything I've picked up in alt.cult-movies.rocky-horror.
The first version came out on April 1994.
In early 1996, Shawn McHorse (riffraff@txdirect.net)
did a major contribution to it, and for that I'm thankful.

These lines are not the only lines that are said, or are possible, surely not an authoritative work. I believe it's more fun to go to the movie and learn the lines from other people, perhaps using this as a reference. The lines here might not be used at your theater, and some of the props might not be allowed (If something is not allowed, DON'T try to bring it into the theater, it is a good way of spoiling the movie for everyone!)

Make up your own lines too!

The most important thing about the movie is to have fun!
That's what RHPS is all about!

I don't want this script to be used as something to memorize from, but rather as a means of getting lines to all of the world quicker and helping your timing of lines.
Don't try to shout all the lines in one screening,
as it may damage your voice...

I would like to thank everyone who contributed to this script.
All the people at my theater who shouted, all the people on alt.cult-movies.rocky-horror who posted lines and a few of my friends for proofing this script.
I would also like to thank everyone else that I'm forgetting.

Now... Let there be lips!
